

Hand-Tailored

Is a phrase that falls glibly from many lips.
Our garments are hand-tailored, to be sure, but we don't boast of it.
It's the head behind the hand that counts in tailoring.
We put head as well as hand into our clothes.
They're basted with brains.

MAN ACCUSED OF MURDER OF CHILD

Charge That Father Would Not Allow Wife to Attend Their Sick Baby.

WILL PURCHASE TEST FARM

Postmasters Will Meet at Raleigh—Mother of Governor Kitchin Ill.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., September 27.—In his charge to the grand jury this morning in Wake Superior Court, Judge W. R. Allen urged the importance of rigid enforcement of the law against carrying concealed weapons. He gave the jury special charges as to finding indictments for selling whiskey and other offenses, there being a large number of such cases coming up from the Raleigh Police Court as a result of the crusade the "reform" administration has made in this direction. There are 179 cases on the docket for this two weeks' criminal term of Wake Court.

An unusual case is against Robert Keith, of House Creek township, charged with killing his own child. The baby was sick and cried during the night. Keith forbade the mother's getting up to attend to it, and then he finally went himself to the crib and strangled the child severely. Nothing more was heard from the child during the night, and next morning it was found to be dead. This is the evidence given by the wife and mother at the preliminary hearing.

Postmasters to Meet.

Postmaster Willis G. Briggs, of Raleigh, as president, will call to order the North Carolina Association of Postmasters in their annual session Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, in the United States courtroom here, the convention to continue through Thursday.

Besides the 118 postmasters of the first-class appointed by the President, the State League of Postmasters of the Fourth Class will also be here, a number of joint sessions being arranged for. Mayor J. S. Wynne is to welcome the postmasters and the president of the Chamber of Commerce, Dr. H. A. Royster, is also to add a word of welcome. To these Postmaster Thomas L. Green, of Waynesville, is to respond.

As announced some days ago a number of prominent officials of the Post-Office Department at Washington will be here to address the convention, including Assistant Postmaster-General P. D. DeGraw, Chief Inspector Theodore Ingalls, Assistant Superintendent of City Delivery B. N. Davis, Assistant Superintendent of Railway Mail Service W. T. McGinnis and Assistant Superintendent of Registered Mails R. P. Allen. Another distinguished visitor will be President A. K. Hoag, of the National League of Postmasters of the Fourth Class. He comes from Orchard Park, N. Y. A big barbecue is to be among the features of the entertainment to be provided.
